Note to all Players:

There has been an influx of players again this month, and certain players will not have received the promotion that they were expecting; for this I apologise.
But this is good for the survival of our club!!

Note to all players:

It has become very apparent that my chrystal ball has stopped working; so a little help would not go amiss, if you scratch from the league with the comment injured, I do not know whether this is a long term injury; or just for the month.
I have therefore added two additional columns to the grid above, therefore to stop any dissapointment from being dropped out of the leagues unnecessarily, help me to help you, by giving me a clue long term injury leave out "until further notice" or "replace next month" enter your name and a tick in the box will do it!!
